

Vortexa opens a NYC office as demand for energy analytics skyrockets with financial market volatility

London, UK - September 1, 2022- Vortexa the leading global provider of real-time insights across all Energy Flows, Freight Fundamentals and Inventories Intelligence announces the expansion of their USA operations with the opening of a New York City office to better serve their clients in the financial sector, accommodate the rapid growth in the Americas Region as well as leverage the area's diverse talent pool. Vortexa will now operate globally out of Houston, New York, Singapore and London (HQ).

The high-volatility in global markets have further accelerated the demand for Vortexa's Energy and Freight analytics, particularly among financial players who are increasingly discovering strong signals in Vortexa's real-time fundamental data now driving markets across multiple asset classes - even beyond commodities.

In addition to the New York City office expansion, Vortexa also announces the hire of a new Sales Director, Joseph Cacioppo. Joseph brings over 20 years of experience in the Financial markets coupled with extensive knowledge in the energy sector having worked for the likes of Blue Ocean Brokerage, Tradition, Evolution Markets and Societe Generale Security Services.

"We are very excited with the expansion of our USA footprint into New York City and the addition of Joseph Cacioppo to our commercial team. This will allow us to work closely with many new and existing customers in the financial sector as we expand our suite of innovations across energy flows, freight pricing and analytics coupled with Joseph's experience in the energy sector." Cosmo Kedros, Managing Director Americas, Vortexa.
